Business Overview

"Hired the circus disco dome which was a great inflatable at a great price! Couldn't get the kids off it. It was a great size too, as there were 20 children making safe use of it. One of the kids even said it was "the best bouncy castle in the world!". All went home happy and all bounced out. Will definitely be using it again." - Customer Review

Business Description

There are 25 inflatables available and included within the sale, all of which are well maintained and kept in excellent condition. The business holds a professional, fully trained team and have a £5 million public liability insurance – which has fortunately never been touched.

The business also operates a highly contemporary, bold and colourful online website. The website is both informative and easily navigational with a full online booking system, allowing for controlled and easily organised appointment facilities. The business is also equipped with a strong social media presence – having garnered 15,000 followers on Facebook alone.

Opportunity

This is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a reputable bouncy castle hire business with a vast number of inflatables, an outstanding reputation and large number of followers on social media.

Despite firm foundations set there are ways in which the business could be promoted further. By growing the product range the business could attract more customers to and by employing more workers; the business could effectively handle a larger workload on a daily basis with greater ease.

Currently ranked high on Google, a new owner could effectively increase the amount of social media accounts available (Twitter & Instagram) to increase exposure to the business through SEO.
