Business Description

Providing essential Carburation and associated spares to a loyal customer base, the business has built up a great reputation within the motorcycling community. Its core revenue stream encompasses supplying carburettors to their clients as well as products and parts that are related to these. The business is also an approved supplier of AMAL parts and accessories which is responsible for the vast amount of its turnover.

Clients range from motorcycling enthusiasts looking for a particular part, to trade clients needing a particular part for their own customers. T

The business has a vast online presence; customers are able to easily place orders via telephone and their email link via their own website which displays its array of stock. The company experiences ample repeat business from clients as well as recommendations from existing clients.

Opportunity

This is a superb chance to purchase a well-established retailer of classic/vintage motorcycle carburation parts and accessories. The business has a loyal customer base and excellent relationships with key suppliers which ensures impressive financial figures.

The business would make a perfect bolt-on acquisition to an existing retailer in their sector, or an entrepreneur with a passion for British Classic/Vintage motorcycles.

Any new owner could grow the business further through implementing further beneficial advertising initiatives, using eBay and Amazon, as well as widening its offering to other retail items. The Present owner has developed their own exclusives which could be developed.

The existing owner is willing to offer assistance for a transitional period to hand the business over to its new owner.
