Business Overview

"What a fab little sunbed shop. Just paid for the first of many visits. Lovely shop, clean and well decorated. Love the idea of the boxes being given to you as your going in, with face wipes, towels and deos in. And the staff are super friendly! Just what's needed rounded here." - Customer Review

Now available to the market is this modern, profitable tanning salon in Lancashire.

Operating successfully since 2016, the business has garnered a loyal clientele and reputable name for itself by providing professional tanning services which leave clients with a flawless glow.

For approximately two years the salon has been the go-to spot for a glowing tan with an even finish, whilst feeling completely pampered and totally relaxed. The salon offers a variety of reasonably priced courses, guaranteeing clients return for multiple sessions. Tanning products, bath bombs and wax melts are also available to purchase, bringing another stream of revenue to the business.

Brought to market only due to the current owner's other business interests, a dedicated new owner would acquire a fully-equipped premises and team of staff in order to drive the salon forward.

Business Description

Operations run from a compact shop positioned on a main road which affords it excellent exposure.

Upon entry from street level, clients are greeted by a reception area where they can comfortably wait for their session to begin. Products are also showcased here on shelving. Towards the rear, there are three treatment rooms, each with their own laydown sunbed. Further on are toilet facilities and an additional room with a stand-up sunbed.

All equipment comes with the sale of the business. Marketing takes place through the business's Facebook page which boasts numerous reviews from delighted clients.

Opportunity

As a profitable, easy-to-run tanning salon, this would be an ideal proposition for a first-time buyer with experience in the beauty industry.

The new owner could take steps to develop the business to increase revenue dramatically. Creating a stronger online presence through a website with a booking platform, as well as more marketing via leaflet drops, would be a brilliant way to grow the salons' client base. There is also plenty of room at front of the salon for a nail bar, which would bring in additional income from current customers. Staying open during the weekends would also be beneficial.

The existing owner is willing to stay on for a transitional period to provide a smooth handover.
