Business Overview

"They came to replace our fence that had been smashed in by vandals. The men came quickly and created a sturdy fence a foot higher than before with a wire running top and bottom along each panel of wood. We were very pleased with the work and the staff were very pleasant to deal with. Highly recommended." - Customer Review

The business for sale supplies and installs home fencing and agricultural fencing and gates in and around Nottingham. Fast, efficient and reliable, the service is backed up by 25 years of combined industry experience and expertise.

Established in 2004, the sole trader offers a wide range of fencing solutions for their clients, which include steel palisade security fencing, chain link, weldmesh, timber fencing, barriers, bollards, railings, industrial estates, site levelling/clearing, landscaping, decking, tree quotes, and repairs. A fully SEO optimised website generates a high number of daily leads.

The current vendors have garnered excellent relationships with key suppliers in the industry which ensure attractive profit margins. The business is an approved contractor for a handful of commercial clients, such as schools and building developers, who provide regular work.

Business Description

This is an opportunity that benefits from being relocatable. There are no physical grounds open to consumers. However, the potential buyer is free to incorporate the creation, marketing and sale of the products into a new or existing business infrastructure.

There is minimal competition in the city in comparison to other areas. Based in Daybrook, Nottingham, the current vendor works from home, spending time at client's premises when required. The Nottinghamshire County is home to enchanting forests, outstanding beauty and a plethora of gardens which require fencing. With regard to clientele, the surrounding areas accommodate plenty of schools, residential areas, private and domestic clients looking for garden fencing.

The current owners are willing to stay on for a transitional period to help familiarise the new owner with the business operations.

Opportunity

This is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a well-established fencing contractor which boasts an excellent reputation and website. The ideal buyer would be an individual or existing fencing company looking to acquire the business as a bolt-on accessory. This opportunity would also be suitable for tradesman passionate about the industry, and business-minded enough to take the firm to the next level.

The flexibility of this business is significant because it allows the new buyer to choose their own working hours. Depending on availability, a new buyer could also invest in this opportunity as a side project. As a relocatable business, the business profits from minimal overheads, which has resulted in impressive financials figures consistently.

For further growth, the new owner could increase their advertising, update their online presence and implement a stronger SEO strategy on social media. The new owner could also consider employing more staff and covering more regions.
