Business Overview

" Brilliant word of mouth reputation " - Customer review

Now available to an interested buyer is this multi-faceted catering company which is currently based in Lancashire but could easily be relocated.

Despite only beginning operations two years ago, the business has built up a reputable name for itself, able to cater for a variety of small to large-scale events, offering high quality food and service with a smile.

The owner prides themselves on serving food which is made from locally-sourced ingredients and tailoring their service to each individual event, which has ultimately helped to create a brilliant word of mouth reputation.

Only up for sale due to the current owner's other interests, the buyer would take on a whole host of equipment in great condition, as well as a well-designed 1950s style food truck.

Business Description

The business boasts a range of catering options for all events, regardless of their size and budget, be it a birthday party, wedding, fair or county show. Its customer base comprises both the public and businesses, all of which have contributed to its exceptional reputation within the catering sector

Clients can choose to hire a hog roast machine for a more relaxed feel, which enables them to do the cooking themselves. This is delivered direct to the event venue and collected on completion. The catering van included in the sale is multipurpose; currently used as an ice cream van, bar and for a full catering service.

The business is also able to provide behind the scenes items such as generators, lighting, PA systems, toilets and rubbish removal to ensure events run smoothly. All equipment will be included in the sale.

With a professional, informative website in place, the business promotes itself effectively and allows potential customers to easily view its services.

Opportunity

This is a fantastic opportunity to take on a profitable and well-equipped catering business which has a trained team and various revenue streams in place.

Ideal for someone already working in the catering industry looking to grow their portfolio, or a first-time buyer searching for an exciting proposition, a new owner could take steps to develop the business further.

The equipment and food truck could be easily adapted to introduce additional catering options or cuisines, which would in turn draw in a larger base of customers. Further advertising through social media could be put in place to also attract new clients. Directing marketing to target businesses would also alert them to the company's services. The existing owner would be willing to stay on for a transitional period in order to hand the business over to its new owner.
