Business Description

The business operates from home, making this an opportunity which could easily be relocated by a new owner. Included in the sale price is a Ford Transit Flatbed van, fully sign-written and valued at £11k and a garage full of tools for construction and landscaping.

The business's main means of generating enquiries is through word of mouth, which brings the business a wealth of referrals. It has an impressive rating of 9.81 on Checkatrade, which, along with its varied portfolio of completed projects, only boasts the business's fantastic reputation.

Opportunity

This is a superb opportunity for a full-time owner or hands on manager of a similar business, or builder/tradesmen, who could take the business forward.

Actively marketing the business and approaching potential clients would be a great way to build a larger online presence. Expanding its area of operation and possibly the team in general, would be a great way to increase workload.

The existing owner would be more than happy to assist during a transitional period to ensure the buyer is completely up to speed with day to day operations.
