Business Description

The business for sale is a well-known and well-established barber shop in Wells, Somerset which specialises in male grooming and haircuts. This business is extremely easy to run and has a wealth of loyal staff. This business is situated in an excellent location which adds to its popularity and has modern décor inside. This business has acquired a variety of loyal, repeat customers who enjoy coming back to the barbers again and again due to the excellent service that is provided.

This business has all of the equipment needed for men's grooming and styling. All equipment is included in the sale of this business including; barbers chairs, a basin, a waiting area and the modern décor.

Opportunity

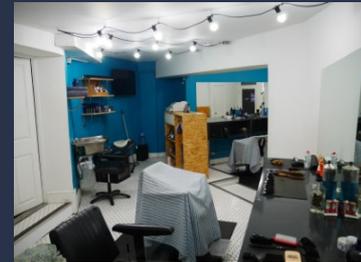

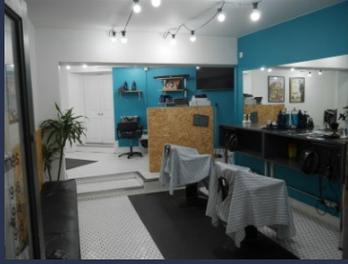

This is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a well-known and popular barber shop in Wells, Somerset with a loyal client base of repeat customers. The new owner would be excited about the opportunities this business presents.

This business has excellent potential for growth and could be developed further by expanding their online presence. This business already has a successful website, however it does not currently run any social media pages. This business could benefit from the development of a Facebook and Instagram page to advertise. This business could also be developed through the use of leaflet drops.

This business would be best suited to a trained barber who is looking for a change, or someone who is looking to expand their portfolio of barber shops.

The current owner is willing to stay on for a transition period to ensure the continued success of the business.
