Business Overview

This is an excellent opportunity to take on a Health and Beauty service sales and distribution company based in Buckinghamshire.

Founded in 2010, the business has since established itself as a market leader within the advanced aesthetics industry, widely recognised as the exclusive UK distributor for Viora and Novoxel.

Its great reputation within the healthcare community has been built through retailing exclusively to commercial clients, as well as working with medical practices for referrals. An individual who is familiar with this field would make an ideal purchaser and could easily expand on the business as they see fit.

Business Description

Present at various exhibitions including Aesthetic Medicine, BCAM Conference and Exhibition and CCR Expo, the business holds a strong presence in the industry, highly commended at the Aesthetic awards in both 2017 and 2018 for Product Innovation of the Year for its Tixel system. Its professional website and social media accounts assist the business in having a solid online visibility and allow potential clients to find more information regarding its products.

Contracts in place with Viora and Novoxel systems since 2011 and 2017 respectively have afforded the business an impressive financial profile year on year.

Operations run from a leasehold premises utilised for everyday duties and for the storage of products, the lease for which can be taken over by a new owner.

Opportunity

An ideal acquisition for an owner operator in the industry, or a current distribution company looking to expand, a new owner could develop the business as they wish.

Securing other distributorships and increasing service activities for example, would be instrumental in growing annual turnover.

The existing owner is happy to stay on for a transitional period to ensure the new owner is up to speed with business operations.
