Business Description

The salon is situated directly on Leigh Road in Boothstown and has double windows which are a great feature for advertising. There are two parking spaces to the front of the property. Upon entry, there is a nail and reception area at the entrance, as well as a spray tan/ pedicure room further on, as well as two large beauty rooms. Beyond this is a kitchen, toilet and back door leading to a small courtyard.

All rooms are fully-equipped, each containing a beauty bed. Its Facebook page has close to 3,000 followers and is also included in the sale. The salon's staff are self-employed and are happy to continue working under new ownership.

Opportunity

Well-suited to someone who currently works as a beautician or hairdresser or an owner-operator of a related business, a new owner could easily grow the business as they see fit.

Increased advertising efforts through social media and potentially by creating a website would afford the business more exposure and bring new clients through the door. Emphasis on product sales would be another great way to drive profit margins. The new housing estates being built in Boothstown will in turn will bring more clients to the salon.

The current owner would be happy to stay on for a transitional period to be agreed upon sale.
