Business Overview

"Really pleased with my hair after having it highlighted today by Lauren. Lovely salon and all staff seem to be a credit to the place. Really happy and can't wait to come back" - Customer Review

Operating as an established hair salon since 1985, the business is now ready to be taken over by a new owner, with a loyal clientele in place comprising clients who have been visiting the salon for years.

Its team of experienced hairdressers specialise in everything from a classic cut and blow dry, to more complex aspects of modern colouring and perming, as well as the revolutionary, nano-intense keratin treatment. Utilising products from recognised brands such as Osmo, TIGI and GHD, the salon provides a professional finish to each hair style.

An interested buyer is presented with a well-equipped premises, friendly, professional team and excellent reputation amongst its customer base in order to propel the salon to future success.

Business Description

Hair services are carried out at the business's spacious premises situated on a high street in Poole. Clients immediately notice the salon's inviting interior as they step onto the shop floor, with various hair stations and backwash basins throughout.

Its professional website and Facebook page bring the business ample exposure, displaying glowing reviews from loyal clients and information regarding its services and pricing.

Opportunity

As the salon has been established at the same site for over 30 years, a new owner would not only take on a lucrative business model, but also its large client base, 90% of whom return on a regular basis.

An ideal proposition for a current salon owner-operator looking to grow their portfolio, or current stylist wanting to go it alone, a new owner could grow the business as they see fit.

Diversifying its services to perhaps include beauty treatments would be a great way to increase spend per client and further advertising through other social media platforms would help to draw in new customers. Perhaps renting chairs to individual stylists or beauticians would also help keep overheads low.

The existing owner would be happy to stay on for a transitional period to hand the business over smoothly.
