Business Overview

The business for sale is a popular, beautifully converted mobile bar.

Operating from a professionally renovated, 1968 Cheltenham Sable caravan, this eye-catching prospect truly is an opportunity not to be missed. Complete with vintage decor to remain close to the original design, the van benefits from being both stylish and practical - with functional space for up to 4 staff members.

Currently operating as a gin bar, the business has proven to be extremely popular at a range of events, including; weddings, birthdays, anniversaries, festivals and corporate events. The versatility of its design also means it could easily be repurposed for a variety of other catering uses as required.

Offered on a fully relocatable basis.

Opportunity

This would be the perfect opportunity for a buyer with experience in the events industry, corporate hospitality or outside catering. This would also make an ideal purchase for a wedding planner looking to expand their current service portfolio.

The versatile nature of the van means it could easily be adapted to suit a wide range of uses and events as suited to a new owner's needs.

The business could easily be grown even further through the introduction of more aggressive marketing, particularly through the likes of social media. Attendance at events such as wedding fairs, trade exhibitions and festivals would also help to spread word of the business even further - introducing new clients and increasing demand.
